

By: Gary Gagliardi,
Corporate Safety Director, Midwest Mole, Inc.

May 19, 2009 – Midwest Mole, Inc. is presented two safety awards. The Metro Indianapolis Coalition for Construction Safety, Inc. (MICCS) presented Midwest Mole, Inc. with two awards during the May 16th 2009 banquet. Midwest Mole won the Safety Achievement and the Safety Leader Award in the Infrastructure Division.

MICCS is a nonprofit organization dedicated to achieving zero injury on construction job sites. MICCS members include construction companies, users of construction services ("owners"), design professionals and construction-affiliated organizations and companies in and around Central Indiana.

Midwest Mole was recognized for outstanding safety achievement by the Indiana Construction Association's Golden Summit Award in 2008.

These awards are a reflection of the continuous dedication of our management, supervisors, foremen and workers to ensure the safety of everyone, all the time, in everything we do. For more information about Midwest Mole, Inc. please visit the website at www.midwestmole.com.

